FOREWORD

In legend and in picture, we have captured from the year gone by highlights of things never to be forgotten---

The inconvenience of construction and mud.....

The long but worthwhile application to the books.....

The friendly noon-hour gatherings.....

The good times that ended all too soon.

When this '56 MEMORIES is dusted off in years to come, we hope that it will help the reader to relive his days at M-N.

DEDICATION

MEMORIES for 1956 is justly dedicated to our parents, whose complete dedication to us can receive its only true reward in the degree of success each of us attains.

The Authors

"Yearbook meeting in Room 32, sixth period."
These lunchtime meetings, coupled with our midnight deadline-dashes, enabled the staff to publish a yearbook worthy of our class and Marple-Newton in spite of the lack of study periods.

Crowded Quarters

Mr. Frank Capotosto, President of the Joint Board of Education, points out the features of the new high school building to members, Mr. J.W. Worrall, Mr. S. Nailor, Mr. C.H. Russell, Mr. H.E. Rathey, Mr. T. Darrah, Mr. W. Culbertson, Mr. W. Trowbridge, Mr. I. Niemeyer, Mr. G.B. Young, Mr. R. Smith, Mrs. J. Scherr, and Mrs. M. Wheaton, Mr. R. Peterson, Mr. J. Fee, and Mr. W. Loomis were not present when the picture was taken.

BOARD BURNS MIDNIGHT OIL

The goal of the Joint School Board has been, and will continue to be, providing students at Marple-Newtown with the best possible facilities for the best possible education. A dual task presented itself this year: completion of our new wing, housing a fine gymnasium and auditorium; and formulation of plans for erecting an entirely new high school, to be finished in 1957. Long midnight-plus sessions were necessary to iron out the innumerable problems standing in the way of performing this task. The exhaustive planning and paper work of the Board will be manifested when the students and residents of Marple and Newtown Townships proudly add these new facilities to our growing school system.

Supervising Principal J.W. Worrall

The Romans had an expression "Tempus Fugit" which, as every high school Latin pupil knows, means that time flies. We hear our contemporaries using the expression "Time is of the essence". One of our writers implored time to turn back in its flight. These expressions and countless others that could be quoted all lead to the same conclusion - that time possesses great value and should be used wisely while we have it.

One great author made the statement that young people think that there is no end to time. This is a pleasant thought but somewhat fallacious. Futhermore, it is well for boys and girls to know that time seems to move faster as each succeeding stage of life is reached.

The printed page contains innumerable pieces of advice on not putting things off but doing them now. Life has a way of cluttering up the years to come with so many activities that they prevent the carrying out of some project which we have planned for the future when the intended time for its performance arrives. The lesson to be drawn from what has just been written is very plain - do not waste time.

Jay W. Worrall

Parent Teachers Association

The P.T.A., with a larger membership and attendance than ever before, remembered the youth of the community by their interest in Canteen, their desire to grant a fulltime scholarship, and by contributing their part in the composition of the Youth Code.

ROBERT WILMER ALLISON — Academic

To strangers, Bob may appear to be quiet and retiring, but to us who know him better, he is full of fun. "Moony" has proved himself a steady, dependable worker, both in serving his Bulletin subscribers and participating in class activities.

Junior Prom Committee, Mar-News 1, Baseball Manager 1.

DELLA M. BATES — Academic

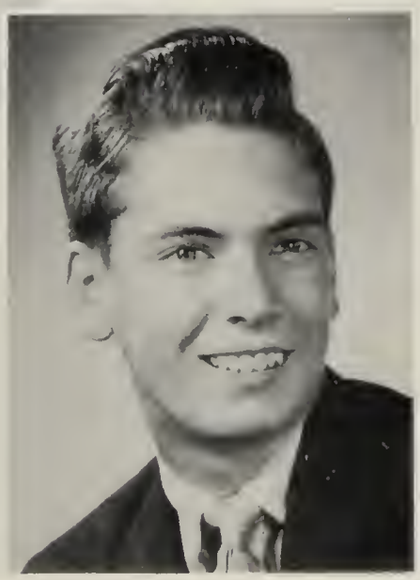
Better known as Toby, this versatile "Gradyvillainess" has divided her time at M-N between school activities and The County Leader, preparing for her career in journalism. "Tobe" has willingly done her part in athletics, cheerleading, Mar-News, and keeping the male population on their toes.

Student Council 1,2,3; Cheerleading 1,2,4; Dance Committee 3,4; Mar-News 2,4; Yearbook 4; Hockey 2,3,4; Letterman 3,4; Basketball 3,4; Letterman 4; Tri-Hi-Y 2,3,4.

SANDRA LEE BEAM — Commercial

Whether behind the wheel of Dad's new Merc., being crowned queen of the Ball, or working at the Country Club, Sandy is a sharp-looking lass. Popular and friendly, Sandy is "really on the beam" collecting Tri-Hi-Y dues or making her attractive clothes.

Yearbook 4; Dance Committee 3; Senior Tea Committee 3,4; Hockey 1,2,3,4; Basketball 1,2,3; LaCrosse 3,4; Tri-Hi-Y 2,3,4; Dancing Club 1; Senior Ball Queen 4.



WILLIAM H. BELL — Academic

Whenever you see Bill, he is rushing either to perform his duties as band captain or to chorus, where he is a baritone soloist. In addition to these interests, Bill is active in Young Life, having attended the Young Life Conference in Colorado last summer.

Student Council 3; Dance Committee 3,4; Band 2,3,4; Chorus 1,2,3,4; District Chorus 3,4; Yearbook Staff 4; Hi-Y 3,4; Band Officer 3,4.

ROBERT FRANK BERKHEISER — Academic

"Berky" is one of M-N's super salesmen and ad-getters. He is aiming for a career in pharmacy if he isn't detoured into matrimony. Bob can always be counted on to lend a hand in any situation.

Dance Committee 3; Yearbook Staff 4.

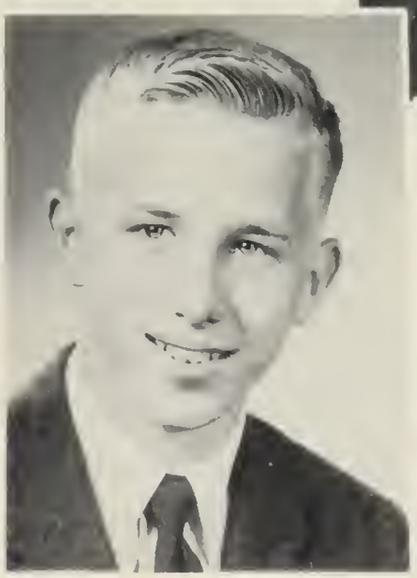
JOHN M. BLACKLEY — General

In contrast to his aversion for book reports and compositions, Johnny has evidenced a keen interest in cars and engines. He is also a good art student who distributes his off school time between caring for his horse and working part-time.

WILLIAM BOWERS, III — Academic

Bill, Penn State's most faithful rooter, has directed his high school education toward an engineering career. His work as MEMORIES subscription manager is indicative of the quality of Bill's accomplishments in the past four years. He has also served M-N well on the court and on the diamond.

Monitor 4; Debating 4; Guard of Honor; Dance Committee 3,4; Yearbook Staff 4; Basketball 2,3,4; Baseball 3; Projectionist Club 1.



WILLIAM R. BRAINERD — Academic

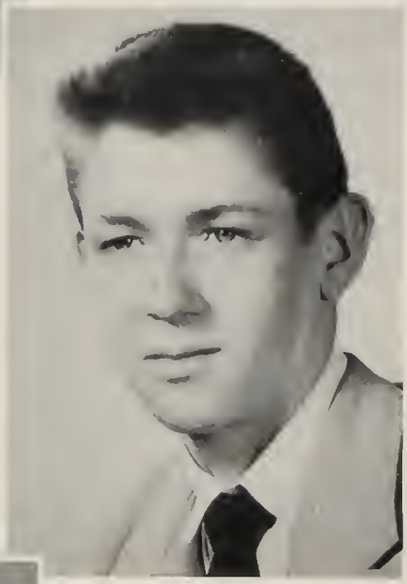
In the short time "Bleachy" has been at Marple-Newtown, he has earned his position in various school and class activities. A self-appointed expert on Shakespeare and Milton, Bill expends much time and energy keeping up his high marks and roping longhorns.

Band 1,2,3,4; Chorus 1,3,4; Class President 1; Student Council Vice-President 2; Debating 1,3,4; Associate Editor, Yearbook Staff; Play 4; Harvard Book Award 3; Scott's Hi-Q 3,4; Student Council 4; Dance Committee 3.

SHELDON LEE BROADBELT — General

Skip's small size has not hindered him in any respect, as a guard on the gridiron or as a class personality. His chief interests are cars and mechanics, but he also finds time for trips to Bryn Mawr and good times with his many friends.

Dance Committee 3; Monitor 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Letterman 4; Basketball 1; Gym Club 1, 2.



JAMES J. BUCKLEY, JR. — General

As one of the diligent milk salesmen for the class, Jim played an important role in keeping senior finances sound. In this and other school activities, Butch's geniality and co-operation have won him much popularity among his fellow students.

Dance Committee 3; Mar-News 2; Football Manager 2; Aviation Club 1.

REID FRANCIS CLIFFORD — Academic

Good-natured and easy-going describe this amiable senior. Besides having a healthy affinity for the opposite sex, Reid works hard within the organizations of which he is a member, offering constructive suggestions. "Cliff" has made known his interests in cars and sports since coming here from U. D. in 1953.

Dance Committee 3, 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Football 4; Basketball 2; Manager 3; Hi-Y 4.

RUTH ELAINE COLEBURN — Commercial

Ruthie, when not working at Mackey's, has found time to serve on many senior committees. In private life, she eats mustard sandwiches and fights with Eddie. An avocation is washing her hair frequently, a practice which helped her to be chosen for the Junior Prom Queen's Court.

Student Council 2; Dance Committee 3; Christmas Card Committee 4; Basketball 1; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Dancing Club 1; Senior Tea Committee 4; Junior Prom Queen's Court 3.

MARY JANE COX — General

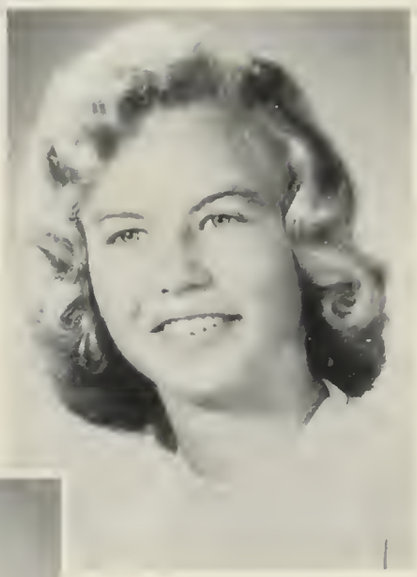
The senior mighty mite has displayed outstanding athletic prowess, especially on the hockey field. After practice, she does not play the field but confines her attentions to an M-N grad. Janie is hoping to be an RN, after which she will try for an MRS.

Cheerleading 1, 3; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Letterman 2, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4.

BARBARA JEAN DANBY — Commercial

Our Mar-News editor is another Mackey's mainstay, managing to be active in numerous school functions. Outside of school, Barb is a member in good standing of ΣΔΦ and keeps a busy social calendar. We must admit that she has met her deadlines better than the MEMORIES editors.

Christmas Card Committee 4; Mar-News 2, 3, 4; Mar-News Editor 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Dance Committee 3; Chorus 3; Guard of Honor 3; Hockey 1; Senior Tea Committee 4; Dancing Club 1; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Sergeant-at-arms 3; Vice-President 4.



BEVERLY DAVIES — Commercial

Bev is among M-N's top scholars despite her claim that she "never studies." Although she remains silent on the subject of her scholastic and extra-curricular achievements, her record speaks for itself. Bev has always done well and will, we think, continue to do so.

Class Officer 1; Yearbook Staff 4; Dance Committee 3, 4; Guard of Honor 3; Cheerleading 3, 4; Typing Award 2; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Letterman 4; Basketball 2, 3; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4; Dancing Club 1; Senior Tea Committee.

DORIS C. DE POVA — Academic

Doris has made a name for herself as class artist, but she does not "draw the line" at this interest. This personable blonde also devotes her time to Young Life, ΣΔΦ, and Haverford High. Using the experience gained in high school, Doris plans to make a career of her artistic talent.

Dance Committee 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Mar-News Staff 1, 2, 3, 4; Art Editor 3, 4; Chorus 1, 2.

ALEXANDER ANTHONY DI CARLO — Academic

There are few things that Al hasn't been seen doing at one time or another. His identifying characteristics, such as standard expressions, a love for the drums, and an occasional girl, have made him distinctive and well-liked.

Dance Committee 3; Yearbook Staff 4; Monitor 4; Football 1, 2; Letterman 1, 2; Baseball 4; Sports Information Club 1.

DIANA MARIE DUDLEY — Commercial

Diana, outwardly quiet and reticent, reveals her talkative nature when in the company of Wilma and her friends. Acquaintances at West Point and Annapolis seem to have the same effect on her. A secretarial career is Diana's present goal.

Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

NANCY LEE EACHUS — Academic

When not driving to and from civilization with Marge or Hatch, Nancy is an old "sew--and--sew," who makes clothes for herself and others. The time spent talking on the telephone has interested her in a career in that field of communication.

Senior High Play 2, 3, 4; Senior Chorus 3; Dance Committee 3; Mar-News 1.

MARTIN F. ELLIOTT — Academic

Marty has earned letters in several nonathletic fields, including three in Mr. Wertz's homeroom and one from Ellis School. As a monitor, he directed hall traffic during the week, and on Saturday nights he was frequently seen directing traffic at Holy Cross.

Dance Committee 2, 3; Football 3, 4; Letterman 4; Basketball 2, 3, 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4; Letterman 2, 3, 4; Hi-Y 4; Gym Club 1; Monitor 4.

JEANETTE ETCOVE — General

When you see this "Tide" rushing, you can be sure that Frank's the reason. On the hockey field, Jeanette is a real whiz, confusing the opposition with her sneaky scoops and lightning passes. In off-school hours she can often be found behind the wheel of her pink Studebaker.

Dance Committee 3; Color Guard 3; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Letterman 3, 4; Basketball 1; La Crosse 1, 4; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

ROBERT BRUCE FELDKIRCHER — General

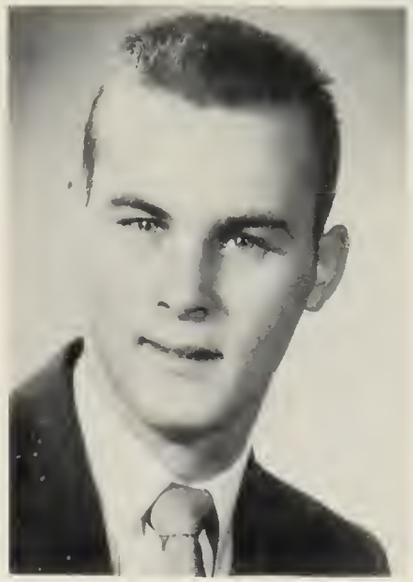
Tall, lanky Bob graduates intending to make a career of his consuming high school interest--sports. Often seen clowning with "Witch" and Steve, "Boot" can show a serious side, too. Admittedly, he is a woman-hater, but why the frequent trips to the Wishing Well?

Student Council 1; Football 1, 2, 3, 4, Letterman 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4, Letterman 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4, Letterman 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee 3; Gym Clubs 1, 2.

BERTHA LORRAINE FISHER — Commercial

"What time is it, Martha?" overheard in 7th period P. O. D. class, indicates Bertha's daily eagerness to get home to see if there's any mail. Her good taste in clothes and her bashful but pleasant smile have contributed to Bert's popularity.

Dance Committee 3; Chorus 1; Typing Award 3; Basketball 1; Library Assistant 1; Needlework Club 2.



HARRY JAMES FITZMIER — General

Fitzy, a transferee from Bartram, had no trouble in fitting into our pattern of school life. Jim brought with him his tricky basketball playing as well as a sincere interest in the "fairer sex." Hard work at the Acme has helped pay for Jim's own car.

MARLYN ELEANORE FITZMIER — General

The other half of this Gradyville duo, though different in many ways from brother Jim, has shown the same knack for making friends since joining us two years ago. Her work in school-and at Mackey's illustrates Marlyn's dependability.

Class Secretary 1; Student Council 2; Monitor 1; Christmas Card Committee 4; Mar-News 4; Dance Committee 3; Art Club 1; Senior Tea Committee 3.

WALTER EARLE FLOOD — General

Walt's famous selling techniques have made him a handy guy to have around, both between nine and three-thirty and behind the counter at H. J. 's. "Floodie" takes his tasks seriously and counts on his '49 Hudson to get to Springfield (he doesn't care if he can't get back).

Monitor 4; Dance Committee 3.

ROBERT P. FRANCOLINI — Academic

Frenchioli, ah...Frankonelli, ah...Bob is a great Hi-Y booster and student of science. Although he aspires to be an engineer, the school is wondering if Bob's fabulous success as a liquid lead pencil vendor does not prove that he can always be a super-salesman.

Dance Committee 3; Hi-Y 4; Model Hobby Club 1.

SANDRA ROSE FREDERICK — Commercial

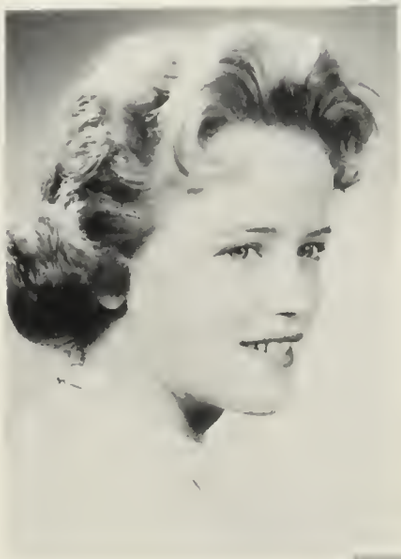
While Sandy clowns quite a bit in shorthand and eats lunch in early classes, still has compiled an impressive scholastic record. Although an expert typist already, Sandy constantly practices by writing daily letters to the "Earl of Delaware."

Yearbook Staff 4; Dance Committee 3, 4; Typing Award 2, 3; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4; Dancing Club 1; Senior Tea Committee 4.

MARTHA JEAN GAUL — Commercial

All Gaul is divided into three parts: talking, gigling, and eating. Martha is forever busy at her many sidelines, either buzzing around in "Bessy" or galloping through the halls. Her week nights are taken up by Young Life and ΣΔΦ .

Business Manager, Yearbook; Chorus 3, 4; Mar-News 3, 4, Alumi Editor 4; Hockey 3; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4; Dance Committee 3; Art Club 1; Top Magazine Salesman.



GRACE MARGUERITE GILBERT — Academic

Petite, pretty Gracie proves the old adage that good things come in small packages. She's always ready with a pleasant word and a smile, a trait which has helped her on the job at Murphy's.

Dance Committee 3, 4; Chorus 1, 2; Cheerleading 1, 2, 4; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Junior Prom Queen Court 3.

JOSEPH BAMFORD GLASSE — Academic

Our outstanding chief executive for the past four years has led us successfully over the rough spots and has planned numerous social events we'll always remember. When he takes time out from class duties and homework, Joe works with his lucrative, protegé, "The Twilighters."

Class President 1, 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee 3, 4; Guard of Honor; Band 1, 2, 3, 4, District Band 3, 4; Chorus 2; Football 3; Hi-Y 4.

R. ELIZABETH GRAHAM — Commercial

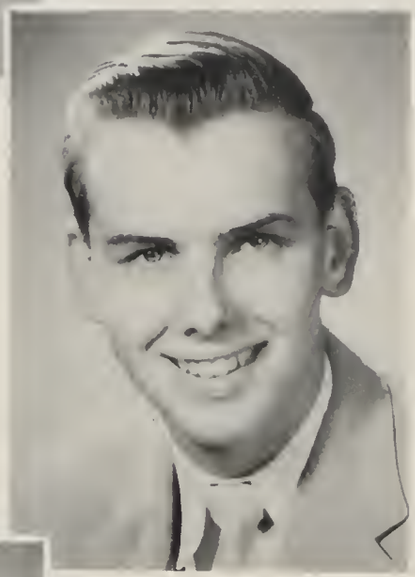
Life with Elizabeth is anything but dull. While she does have somber moments, Liz is better known for her perpetual good humor and contagious laugh. Her main interests, jazz and ΣΔΦ , both rank second to Liz's love for people in general (11-Academic, too).

Christmas Card Committee 4; Mar-News 3, 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Dance Committee 3; Senior Tea Committee 4; Tri-Hi-Y.

WILMA LORRAINE GRETE — Commercial

Wilma, M-N's female athlete supreme, finds relief from her lo-o-o-ng grind during the school week by relaxing (?) at West Point. The ingredients of Wilma's color scheme are the blue and White Merc., the blonde streak in her hair, feeling blue during the week, and gray and gold on the week-ends.

Vice-President 2; Student Council 3, 4, Treasurer 3, 4; Dance Committee 3, 4; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4, Letterman 2, 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4, Letterman 2, 3, 4; LaCrosse 1, 2, 3, 4, Letterman 2, 3, 4; Dancing Club 1; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4.



RICHARD D. GROSS — Academic

Dick is our answer to Einstein, once or twice removed. When not catching teachers' errors, he is active in many school organizations or in his individual study of foreign languages. Dick is ably suited to several career fields, leaning more toward engineering.

Scott's Hi-Q 3, 4; National Honor Society 3, 4; Debating 2, 3, 4; Guard of Honor 3; Chorus 3, 4; Play 3, 4; Yearbook Staff; Dance Committee 3; Engineers' Club 3; Science Club. 1.

KARIN V. HALL — Commercial

Classroom honors, service to her school, and wide-spread popularity are all natural parts of this amicable senior. Secretary Karin puts in many hours at M-N and at Mac Laren's, after which she joins her "sisters" in ΣΔΦ or the Tri-Hi-Y.

Secretary 4; Christmas Card Manager 4; Mar-News 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee 3, 4; Guard of Honor 3; National Honor Society 3, 4; Hockey Manager 1, 2; Senior Tea Committee 3; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; President 4; Library Club 1.

WARREN W. HAMILTON — Academic

Warren is one of M-N's top-flight musicians and has been proved a capable thespian as well. Although nonchalant as a rule, "Hammy" does occasionally lose sleep over Miss Yeingst's English tests or a coming band concert Band 1, 2, 3, 4; Co-Captain 4; Chorus 3, 4; Play 4; Dance Committee 3; Hi-Y 3, 4; Card Club 1.

PRISCILLA ELAINE HARLOW — General

A keen sense of humor accompanied by a spiraling giggle characterize Pat, usually seen goofing off with Nancy. The original hair styles and her ambition to be an airline hostess misrepresent Pat's real name, which she heartily dislikes.

Tri-Hi-Y 3.

JOHN HARTNETT

In the year that we have known John, he has impressed us with this friendliness and fondness for women. What we wonder is how much the trips to school with "Sam" in the DT car have improved the navigation of his boat or his cars.

ELIZABETH G. HATCHER — Academic

Tests and gym classes frequently find Betty with her pals, Marge and Nancy, pursuing happiness in a different direction. These diversions may include anything from Brubeck to Steve Allen. Hatch hopes to be a "Betty Co-ed" at either University of Pennsylvania or Penn State.

Junior Prom Committee 3.

WILLIAM RUDD HENDERSON — Academic

Lititz' loss was M-N's gain, for Rudd, with his alto sax and friendly nature, has become a valuable asset to our school community. Rudd's summer pastimes, camping and swimming, have conditioned him for the hardy life of a U. S Forester.

Band 4.

CONSTANCE G. HIRSCH — Commercial

One of the greatest disappointments to M-N's masculine segment has been Connie's singular attention to a favored few, sometimes from rival schools. No doubt Connie has gained this inter-scholastic popularity with her pretty hair and diminutive figure, characteristics which twice have made her a fitting Sadie Hawkins wolf-gal.

Secretary 2; Dance Committee 3; Majorette 1, 2, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Majorette Club 1, 2.

ELEANOR FRANCES HOCH — Academic

Mr. Kachur's right-hand girl is partial to bright reds, cool hot rods, and Murphys' merchandise. In several years, Fitzgerald-Mercy Hospital will receive the same loyal service which future-nurse Eleanor has unselfishly afforded our class, especially in the financing of the '56 MEMORIES.

Mar-News 2, 3; Hockey Manager 1; Basketball Manager 1, 2, 3; Senior Chorus 1, 2; Yearbook Staff 4; Dance Committee 3, 4; Dancing and Library Club 1.

BRUCE W. HOWARD — Academic

Bruce is a man of likes and dislikes. Seemingly, he has no time for women or homework, but all of us wish we had his amazing knowledge of physics and chemistry. Any extra time Bruce spends on hobbies ranging from jazz and Bob-and-Ray to ornithology and photography.

Student Council 1; Debating 4; Guard of Honor 3; Play 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Engineers' Club 3; Science Club 1.

ROBERT W. HUNTER — Academic

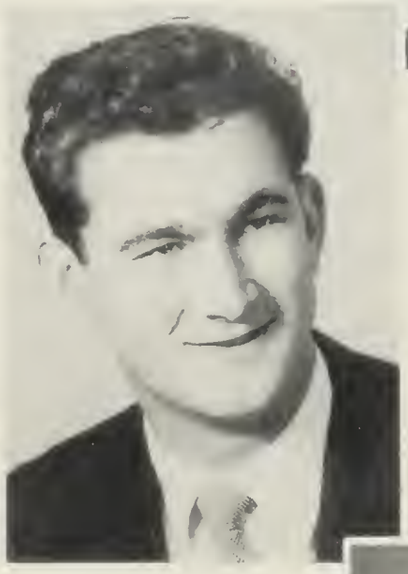
If every class has an enigma, Bob seems to be ours, for he keeps pretty much to himself. Most of Bob's weekend is spent keeping Horn and Hardart's in running condition. His interests include his dog Chip, his black '50 Ford, and music, particularly jazz and rock''n roll.

Dance Committee 3; Baseball 1; Letterman 1.

JOHN BOYCE HURFORD — Academic

This "guy" is the local version of Rock Hudson, his tall, dark and handsome looks enabling him to be chosen "Mr. Heartthrob" of 1956. John is hopeful of first graduating from Harvard, then training in law school, and finally working for J. Edgar Hoover.

Class Treasurer 3, 4; Monitor 3, 4; Guard of Honor 3; Dance Committee 3, 4; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Letterman 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Letterman 3, 4.



ROBERT J. JACKSON — Academic

The most recent addition to the Senior Class came here from the Pittsburgh area, but he found it easy to mix readily with M-N'ers, especially the girls. Bob, exhibiting crazy striped shirts and a happy disposition, contributed often and well in Miss Yeingst's classes in English Lit.

Class Secretary 1; Treasurer 4; Chorus; Play 2, 3; Dance Committee 3; Football 1.

VIRGINIA LOUISE JOHNSON — Academic

The common last name of Johnson belies the exceptional good nature and popularity of pretty Ginny. She has managed to combine an active high school schedule with an equally busy social program, which has included such interests as ΣΔΦ, bowling, and Art.

Dance Committee 3, 4; Hockey 2, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4; Assistant Manager, Christmas Cards 4; Junior Prom Queen's Court 3.

JAMES BYERS KADEL — Academic

Kadel, crime photographer, warrants the credit for the MEMORIES' snapshots, devoting many Saturdays and weeknights to "shooting" football and basketball action. A good portion of Jim's time, both summer and winter, is spent very successfully in competitive swimming. His sights are set on an engineering degree from Lehigh University.

Student Council 2; Senior Play 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Science Club 1; Football 3.

RODNEY BRUCE MACARTNEY — Academic

Handyman Rod, with his sidekick W. Flood, willingly sacrificed much P. O. D. class time running errands hither and yon for several different teachers. "Mac" is a mainstay of Doran's music-makers, although he's run up quite a bill by punching holes in bass drums.

Chorus 1; Band 3, 4.

BARBARA FAE MADDOX — Commercial

The head majorette the last two years started twirling as one of M-N's original band batonists. Barbara passes her time horseback riding, driving her troublesome car, and going to Holy Cross. Of course, those daily letters to her soldier keep her pretty well-occupied.

Majorettes 1, 2, 3, 4; Captain 3, 4; Hockey 1, 2, 3, 4; Majorette Club 1, 2; Tri-Hi-Y 2, 3, 4; Dance Committee 3; Basketball 1, 2, 3; LaCrosse 4.

MARLENE C. MARZ — Commercial

Marlene has extraordinary typing and shorthand ability, a talent she has put to good use managing the business affairs of the Mar-News. When not keeping Mr. Harvey's desk clear of his raft of paper work, "Mar" presides over $\leq \Delta \phi$ and plans her popular-post-prom parties.

Christmas Card Committee 4; Business Manager Mar-News-4; Yearbook Staff 4; Dance Committee 3; Senior Tea Committee 4; Typing Award 3.

LEONA RUTH MAU — General

M-N's "Miss Music" is a title well-deserved, for Leona is the qualified accompanist of the Chorus, an exceptional soloist in her own right, and a top performer on the marimba. Leona plans to further her music career upon graduating from West Chester S. T. C.

Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; District Chorus 3, 4; Yearbook 4; Senior Play 2, 4; Dance Committee 3, 4.

KATHLEEN MICAELA MULHERN — Academic

Although Kathy will never be forgotten for her absent-mindedness and naivete, she'll be remembered better for her positive convictions, her friendliness with teachers and students, and her lovely voice. As debate chairman, this Irish lass handled the preparations and introductions very capably.

Chorus 1, 2, 3, 4; District Chorus 4; Dance Committees 3, 4; Debating 4; Mar-News 3, 4; Senior Play 4.

REGENA M. MURPHY — Commercial

The first of the "Three R's" is sweet, petite, but studious Regena, who often borrows specs to emphasize the last point. This little girl in the big Buick hopes to go places as a kindergarten teacher from West Chester S. T. C. Her prized possession is a Haverford "Banner."

Mar-News 4; Tri-Hi-Y 4.

JOAN E. REICHERT — Commercial

Joan is Mr. Harvey's supply room whiz before school, and, when the 9:00 bell rings, she returns to the books she left last night. Joan has developed her culinary talent fully, the most important reason being to satisfy the appetite of a certain U. S. Mail Carrier.

Treasurer 2; Dance Committee 3; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4; Dancing Club 2.

JOAN B. REIF — Academic

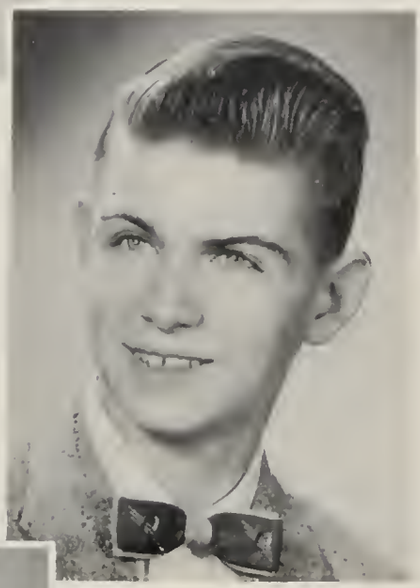
The second of the "Three R's" is a future woman-in-chalk, planning on an elementary teaching career. Joan's diligent reading of the Sunday novel condensations and her position as library typist illustrates her fondness for literature. This Bermuda shorts fan frowns on dissenters and boy-crazy girls.

Mar-News 4; Dance Committee 4; Library Aide 4; Tri-Hi-Y 4.

ESTHER RAE ROSS — Commercial

Rae, last but not least of the "Three R's," likes many different things. Her interests range from reading astronomy books by the fire to dating the strong, handsome type. Favorites of Rae's are rock 'n roll, wilted endives, and phone calls from the Lone Star State.

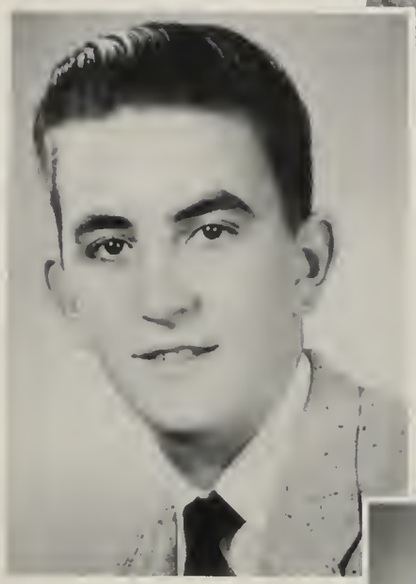
Tri-Hi-Y 4; Senior Play 4; Future Homemakers of America 2.



RAYMOND HARRY ROWLAND — Academic

Reserved and calm are Harry's exterior make-up, but, when there is an errand to be run, whether for the Senior Class or for his father, he doesn't lose a minute. Harry had devoted four years' worth of Friday afternoons studying organ and piano at the Philadelphia Conservatory of Music.

Dance Committee 3; Band 1; Orchestra 1; Chef Club 1; Assistant School Pianist 1.



JOHN A. SANKEY — General

Outdoorsman John is also at home socially, enjoying dancing as well as his hunting, fishing, and ice-skating. Looking into his crystal ball, we see that the Navy is prominently in the picture, possibly as a career. John has two definite peeves: reading from Will Shakespeare and being caught in the rain.

CHARLES ALBERT SCHAFFNER — Academic

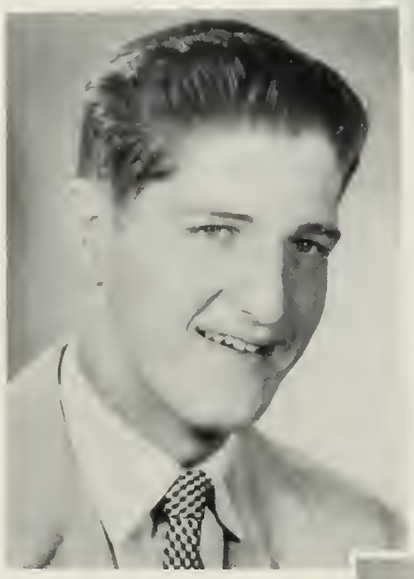
Charlie is M-N's head electrician, giving willingly of his time, talent and equipment to help school functions. He has used this electrical wizardry for fixing TV sets at D. & K. and for setting up and maintaining his private radio station, both in preparation for a career in electronics.

Dance Committee 3.

HELEN MARIE SCHMIDT — Commercial

Another high-stepping majorette veteran is Helen. Although she missed Joan, Helen made frequent sojourns to Holy Cross or lived it up with her friends, particularly several Junior boys. Saturdays find Helen "manning" a check-out counter at the Acme in the Square.

Majorette 2, 3, 4; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4; Dancing Club 1.



JOHN BROMLEY SELLERS — Academic

"Can we have Young Life at your home tonight?" That question can come from only one person, J. B. "Brewster" Sellers. This long, lanky monitor is the recognized class clown, although he's dead serious on the gridiron, planning to star for Drexel Tech in a few years.

Dance Committee 3; Football 1, 2, 3, 4; Letterman 3, 4; Hi-Y 3, 4; Vice-President 4.

STEPHEN RICHARD SELVERIAN — Academic

Steve is a natural-born leader, captaining football and the monitors, and guarding our Hi-Y funds. "Old Number 44" hasn't had to tackle any college coaches to get their attention. Steve isn't sure yet, but he favors engineering as his life's work.

Monitor 4; Dance Committee 3; Yearbook Staff 4; Football 3, 4; Letterman 3, 4; Hi-Y 4; Treasurer 4.

ROBERT EDWARD SMITH — General

"Smitty" was a welcome addition from Upper Darby, finishing second only to Feldkircher as top basketball point-maker. Outwardly quiet and even a little girl-shy, Bob does his share of classroom kibitzing. His favorite class is biology (could it be the teacher?).

Football 1, 2; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Letterman 4; Baseball 1, 2, 3, 4.

BARBARA M. STEINHOUSE — Commercial

"Bubbles," one of the best Senior workers in Tri-Hi-Y, is always plotting some mischievous caper involving others. Getting to practices on time in all three seasons has kept Barbara pleasantly hopping. Her pet worries were staying awake in early morning classes and passing Miss Yeingst's punctuation tests.

Chorus 1; Dance Committee 3; Hockey 3, 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4, Letterman 4; LaCrosse 3, 4, Letterman 4; Tri-Hi-Y 3, 4.

ROBERT F. THOMPSON — Academic

"Gympie" goes for old cars and summers south of the Mason-Dixon line. The absentee king's preference in food is limited to steaks and French fries, but his choices of girl friends are based on the adage, "There's safety in numbers."

Dance Committee 2, 3; Football 4, Letterman 4; Hobby Models Club 1.

MAJORIE THURSTON — General

Marge is another of our girls interested in teaching in the grades. She has used the experience gained in the weekly practice at Swartmore College in teaching swimming, her favorite sport, at a girls' camp in Maine. Marge prefers Glenn Miller's music and Bob Wilson's company.

Dance Committee 3.

NANCY JEANNE VAN HORN — Commercial

Waitressing at the Edgemont Dairy Cottage and driving Dad's Pontiac with Pat in the Front seat, this green-eyed Gradyville lass with an Irish temper is frequently moody and quiet. "There he is," means that another Texan has bitten the dust at "Sandy's" feet.

Dance Committee 3; Chorus 1; Dancing Club 1.

JEAN EVELYN WADLUND — General

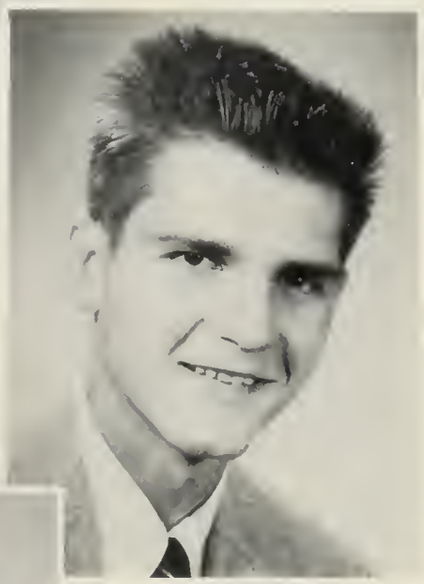
Fascinating but dreamy depicts our "Jeannie with the Light Brown Hair." This Modeling School student somehow keeps her trim figure in spite of her constant munching in class. Jean is a member of ΣΔΦ, Rainbow Girls, and the Chrysler Club.

Mar-News 3, 4; Dance Committee 3, 4; Senior Chorus 2, 3, 4; Home Economics Award 2.

DEBORAH ANNE WALLACE — Commercial

This was Debbie's big year. She ably directed the Student Council, assumed a big role in "Quiet Summer," and was the captivating captain of our cheerleaders. Deb has fun everywhere--rooting for Penn State or dancing at the Wishing Well.

Student Council 2, 4, President 4; Mar-News 3, 4; Yearbook Staff 4; Dance Committee 3, 4; Senior Chorus 3, 4; Senior Play 2, 3, 4; Cheerleading 1, 2, 3, 4, Captain 4; Dance Club 1; Hockey 1; Declamation Prize 2; Senior Tea Committee 4.



BERNARD M. WENKE — General

Deep-voiced Bernie is friendly toward everyone. Cars are almost a full-time occupation with him, for he works part of the time at Kirk Chevy and he spends the rest on his own car. Despite his distaste for history, Bernie likes discussions and speaks freely, using good reasoning.

BEVERLY ELIZABETH WOOD — Commercial

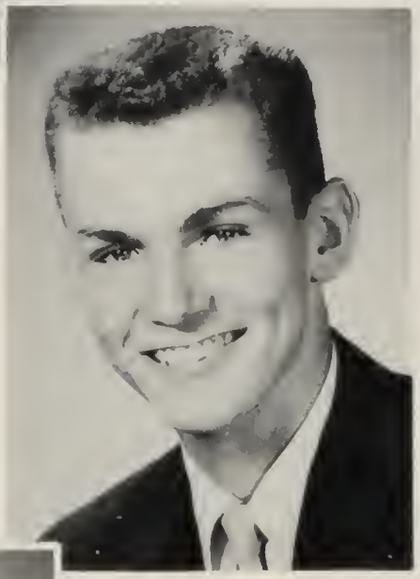
"Do you have your homework done?" is the question often heard from this quiet little girl with the big note book. Be assured that Bev's work was always finished. With her neat appearance and hard work, her ambition of becoming a good secretary should certainly materialize.

Dance Committee 3; Senior Chorus 4; Basketball 1; Shop Club 1; Library Assistant 4; Dancing Club 1.

BARBARA LYNNE WOOLERY — Academic

Blushing becomingly is Barb's best-known characteristic. She can often be seen "pushing" a bowling ball, munching on potato chips, listening to popular music, or planning another of her famous luncheons for her Senior friends. Barb is going to major in French at the University of Miami (Florida).

Dance Committee 3; Chorus 3, 4; Christmas Card Assistant 4; Hockey 3.



ARTHUR WINSLOW WRIGHT — Academic

Few of his many friends can imagine where Art finds time for all the things he does so well. While the scope of his Senior social life has been narrowed, Art, in his busy schedule, has done the most for the school and is certainly one of M-N's "great guys."

Vice-President 3, 4; Scott's Hi-Q 3, 4; Yearbook 4, Editor 4; Hi-Y 3, 4, President 4; Debating 2, 3, 4; Guard of Honor 3; National Honor Society 3, 4; Chorus 4; Declamation Prize 2; Football 1, 2, 3, 4, Letterman 4; Basketball 1, 2; Baseball 1, 3, 4; Dancing Club 1; Dance Committee 2, 3, 4; Monitor 3.

BETTY ANN WRIGHT — Academic

Betty says little, because her popularity and the high quality of her work speak for themselves. She matches a fine scholastic record with her numerous school and social activities. In college Betty plans to concentrate on her goal of becoming a medical technologist.

National Honor Society 3, 4; Chorus 1, 3, 4; Guard of Honor 3; Play 4; Dance Committee 3; Yearbook 4, Associate Editor 4; Library Assistant 4.

THOMAS ANDREW YOUNG — Academic

"Youngie" has upheld the family basketball name ever since we can remember. Tom, the lady killer, left many broken hearts in the wake of his bashful smile. He prides himself on being a charter resident of Larchmont and his great capacity for java.

Student Council 1, 3; Dance Committee 3; Band 1, 2, 3; Monitor 4; Basketball 1, 2, 3, 4; Letterman 3, 4; Baseball 1, 3, 4.

WALTER A. HENTSCHEL General

If you ever need a ride or are stuck in the snow, call on Walt and his trusty Jeep. "Hentsch" contrasts his conservative interest, stamp collecting, with frequent treks to Drexel Hill for card games and bowling with the boys.

Dance Committee 3; Engineers' Club 3.

ALMA MATER

Lift your hearts to old M-N High
For the service she has done for thee.
Hail! Oh, Hail! Alma Mater dear,
With our songs of love and loyalty.
We survey with all pride and joy

6	Springfield	12

"Whether Thurs was galloping for an M-N first down or Dick was driving in for the kill, these guys tried their darndest."

At the outset of our first season with Mr. Bonder and Mr. Williams, the situation looked good for the Tigers. Beginning with a good showing against Radnor and playing bigger schools than ever before, our gridders plowed through a stormy season of ups and downs, culminating with a whopping defeat over Nether Providence, 34-0, and a close Springfield battle in which M-N came out on the short end of a 12-6 score.

Mr. Bonder and his staff are looking forward to a better season next year, despite our step-up to Section II, because many of the first eleven will be back.

TIGERETTES

But Carry

For the first time in several years, Marple-Newtown has enjoyed an almost-undefeated season because of the hard work of every member of the squad.

Many thanks are due Mrs. Knox and Miss Blocher for their spirit and effort which have helped the team finish this victorious season.

GROWING GRIDIRON GREATS

The relatively inexperienced Junior High football team faced still competition from larger schools and did their best under the leadership of John Kegel, captain, and Richard Orr, co-captain. The coaches, Mr. Pittman and Mr. Watson, stressed fundamentals such as tackling and blocking. A tie with Chichester was the high point of the season. The boys improved as the season progressed, playing a better ball and showing a better knowledge of the game.

Jumping into a strong Section II League, the Tigers started off right by dumping Chichester twice and whipping Nether Providence for our first league win. From there the boys fell off the pace until they humbled Upper Merion by eleven points. Radnor had its hands full in the last league contest, but Kistler and Co. pulled the game out of the fire and went on to cop the District I Championship.

Coach Dave Williams and his charges merit much credit for playing well under the unique practice arrangements; namely, traipsing daily to enemy Media's territory. We're assured of better results next year when the team can prepare and play on a familiar court.

Sporting the best won-lost record is the Junior Varsity; but, not satisfied with this accomplishment, the boys will be out to better it next year, using our much-improved facilities.

Watson's cagers triumphed in five of their last six encounters, finishing up with a 7-13 log. Top scorer was Sam "Buddy" Young.

The J-V's late season surge proved that a little experience will place Marple-Newtown in its proper niche as a Section II leader.

NET TWO

Practicing under adverse conditions in a church, our feminine hoopsters, led by Barbara Steinhouse, turned in a won-lost chart of 2-7-1. After starting off strongly against NP, the girls gradually accustomed themselves to playing in big gyms and showed marked improvement. Only four girls will graduate, leaving Mrs. Jardine an experienced nucleus with which to mold a winning team for the proper christening of our new gym.

Preparations are made right here for tomorrow's varsity. Coach Pittman stressed the fundamental and sportsmanship angle of basketball, emphasizing the necessity for doing one's utmost, no matter what.

Dick Biborosch and Tom Shea co-captained the Junior High through an eight-game schedule, of which the high point was a 43-41 victory over Media.

Here again, improvement was definitely noticed, despite the unfortunate practice facilities.

This year's varsity cheerleaders, under the leadership of Captain Debbie Wallace, enjoyed an active season despite the limited practicing and cheering facilities.

The big event of the year was the annual cheerleading competition at Norristown, where M-N'rs have received excellent ratings in the past.

Four members will be lost by graduation, but it is certain that those remaining are more than capable of cheering our teams on to victory.

Limited practicing space also handicapped our Junior High morale boosters, but these girls, captained by Sue Robertson, showed no lack of spirit.

Because of the energy of these girls, the eighth and ninth grades held their own pep rallies for the first time, a good example of the work accomplished by our future varsity cheerleaders.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Student Council, Marple-Newtown's official student governing body, offers a voice in school affairs to all.

This year President Debbie Wallace and the Council sponsored such projects as Christmas decorations, several school dances, and a lunchtime recreation program.

Progressive steps taken this year by our Council were our joining the National Student Council Union and our sending of several delegates to the annual convention of that organization.

Revamped Paper Interests Students

The Mar-News staff started a busy year with sponsors, Mr. Curtis and Miss Koletas. Editor Barbara Danby and her many assistants worked hard to cover all the events of the school year with a bigger and better paper.

The paper with its news, features, gossip, jokes, and sports proved to be one of the most popular items at M-N.

This year's senior production, a rollicking-comedy entitled "Quiet Summer," was presented on February 4, 1956, before a capacity crowd at the Charles H. Russell School. After giving a fine performance, the cast and the two directors, Mr. Miller and Miss Liddick, ended a successful evening with a party at the home of Bill Brainerd.

CHAMPS CONFRONT CHALLENGERS

A trio of able recruits joined the three veterans from last year's winning team in competing against Media, Ellis School, and P.M.P.S. for Marple-Newtown's fourth debating championship in the last five years. The topic, "Resolved: that governmental subsidies should be granted according to need to high school graduates who qualify for additional training," was one of vital interest to senior high school students and afforded our debaters with the "clash" necessary for successful contests.

SCOTT'S

Hi-Q Cues

As we went to press, Marple-Newton's all-male quiz quartet--had completed only one-third of its schedule, a battle of wits with foursomes from Interboro and Ridley Township.

A higher score than last year's in the team's initial encounter has made the outlook for a berth among the three finalists much brighter. Our team will be trying for Scott Paper's one-thousand dollar award, but, regardless of the outcome, they will enjoy the spirit of friendly scholastic competition.

HOLDOVER HONOR STUDENTS WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

We wish to congratulate the fourteen new members of the Marple-Newtown Chapter of the National Honor Society. They are:

Seniors-
William Brainerd

James Kadel
Stephen Selverian

Juniors-
Barbara O'Neil
Donald Iffland
Deborah Milton

Martin Buehler

The five holdovers are Betty Wright, Arthur Wright, Karin Hall, Richard Gross, and Richard Fraser.

The late date of the initiation of this year's honored fourteen prevented our including their pictures in your yearbook. But theirs is still a great honor, worthy of our respect and admiration. They were chosen by their faculty and Society members on the basis of four qualities: character, scholarship, leadership, and service.

Congratulations to each of these outstanding teen-agers.

Satisfaction....

The Tri-Hi-Y has had a very successful and enjoyable year. This year's members included fifty girls from grades ten to twelve.

After initiation, which was held at Ned Nedurian's, their first project was selling chrysanthemums with the school colors attached.

In December, the girls visited the Chester Day Nursery, taking Santa Claus and a pack of giffs with them. On Friday evenings in the fall and spring, the club sponsored canteen and several special dances.

Easter eggs were sold again this year, the profits going toward the annual Mother-Daughter Banquet.

.... Through Service

The Hi-Y, really active for the first time since 1953, had an enjoyable year, helped by our advisors, Mr. Wertz and Mr. Hughes.

Included in our more important projects were the selling of liquid lead pencils, writing a bill for the Hi-Y Model Legislature, and sponsoring delegates to the several "Y" conventions.

FALL WAS BUSY . . . .

SEPTEMBER:

----Construction forces week's delay in school opening. Hooray!!

----Bonder leads cleat men forth to battle against Souderton and Radnor. No comment.

----Fall canteen opens (10:30 football curfew cramps lovers' styles).

OCTOBER:

----Neck and neck fray with Chichester, 19-19, precedes doldrums due to circumstances beyond our scores.

----Hockey team remains undefeated; rack up one for the girls in the Battle of the Sexes.

----Tri-Hi-Y initiation; laughs, grease paint, cold cream, cold cream, cold cream.

NOVEMBER:

----Autumn Leaves, Sadie Hawkins touch off winter dances.

----N-P falls to Bonder's bludgeon, 34-0; footballers declare National Holiday.

---- Girls bounce back from Springfield, end best hockey season in M-N history.

----Cougars' roar reduced to squeek; M-N barely misses, 12-6, on Turkey Day.

WINTER WAS FUN . . . .

DECEMBER:

----Senior mothers get together for tea; exchange psychology notes.

----Williams' Tigers dig out, soup Chichester.

----Seniors cavort at Philly's Ben Franklin Hotel; no deaths reported.

JANUARY:

----Williams' Kittens hit skids; who applied the brakes?

----Teachers man battle stations for midyears; need we say more?

FEBRUARY:

----Thespians have "Quiet Summer" in Midwinter, but we don't really care!

----Library packs up and moves; you never picked up such heavy reading in your whole life.

BEFORE WE KNEW IT THE YEAR WAS DONE

MARCH:

----Debaters cop county crown; rivals holler "Uncle" as M-N retains trophy.

----Honor Society elects; fourteen join honored ranks.

----One day Easter "vacation;" censored!

APRIL:

----Frosh and Sophs trip the light fantastic.

----Baseball, LaCrosse enthusiasts wallow in March mud.

MAY:

----Junior Prom at Walnut Park Plaza. Boy, are we getting fancy. Gala affair.

----Homestretch for Seniors. "Will I be back?"

JUNE:

----Seniors' last fling.

----Washington invaded; "Ike" declares martial law, calls for National Guard.

----Boo! Hoo! Commencement and Graduation Party. Ex-Seniors face cold, cruel world.

On the preceding pages of this book, we have tried to record as much as possible of the '55-'56 chapter of Marple-Newtown. We have done our best but can only be rewarded if these hundred pages have captured for you, as for us, the happiness and troubles shared as carefree M-N'ers.

Little, however, could have become reality without the unfailing co-operation and encouragement of many persons. They all helped wonderfully, but special thanks are due the following: Mr. Rathey and Mr. Worrall, for their excellent leadership; our advisors, for their patient guidance; and, most of all, Miss Helen Yeingst, for her unselfish contribution of time and talent in the preparation of MEMORIES and the well-timed advice she gave her "children," helping them to enter adulthood much the wiser.

Please accept these thanks from a grateful class for making our years with you at Marple-Newtown the best years of our lives.

Good Luck,

Betty, Martha, Bill, and Art.

The law was our SCHOOL MASTER
to bring us to Christ -----

Gal. 4:24

Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to everyone that believeth -------

Romans 10:4

He that believeth on HIM is not condemned, but he that believeth not is CONDEMNED ALREADY because he hath not believed in the name of the only begotten
Son of God.

John 3:18

There is therefore NO CONDEMNATION to them that are in Christ Jesus.
